Murphy Appointed As Foreign Representative

Nixon, LBJ Display Unity

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Richard M. Nixon, confident that President Johnson will undertake no foreign policy initiative without his concurrence, is sending a veteran diplomatic troubleshooter to the State Department as the voice of his new administration.

Nixon said that retired diplomat, Robert D. Murphy, will oversee foreign policy matters during the period of government transition in an agreement by which Johnson will consult with his Republican successor before acting abroad.

Murphy will take his new post as soon as possible, perhaps within the next few days.

Nixon was not explicit on the question of what will happen if he and Johnson differ on some foreign policy undertaking between now and the inauguration Jan. 20. He disclaimed any veto power over policies of the Democratic administration. But he made clear that he expects nothing to happen over his objection.

Aware Of Difficulty

Nixon said that in Vietnam policy, there is no disagreement between the incoming and outgoing presidents on "broad general policy outlines."

He added at a Thursday news conference: "I think President Johnson is keenly aware of the fact that it would be very difficult for him to make any kind of an agreement on a major policy matter unless he could give assurance to the parties on the other side that it would be implemented and respected by the next president."

Nixon indicated that the machinery of the agreement went into operation when he was at the White House Monday. He said the discussions there covered Vietnam, a statement to be made by the United States at the NATO conference and "other matters that are not currently in the news."

While the emphasis of Nixon's foreign policy arrangement seemed to be the Vietnam war and negotiations, the President-elect said it covers all areas of foreign affairs. He said if an area of formal foreign commitment should arise, for example, talks with the Soviet Union on antimissile defenses, "I would expect to sit down personally with the President."

Service Experience

Murphy, Nixon's man at the State Department, is the 74 year old chairman of Corning Glass International. He spent 39 years in the foreign service and was under secretary of state for political affairs during the administration of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Murphy described himself in the title of his memoirs as "Diplomat Among Warriors," the description of a man who was a top civilian among the generals and admirals in World War II. He was in Paris in 1940 watching the Nazis enter the city, in North Africa in 1942 preparing the landing of American troops, and with Eisenhower at Supreme Allied Headquarters from 1943 until the end of the war.

Confers With Meany

Nixon said Murphy will keep him informed on foreign policy matters, set up the system for advance consultation and contribute to the policy discussions of the current administration.

He said Rusk and Johnson indicated they would welcome the contribution Murphy would make.

Nixon confers today with George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO and also with Whitney Young, director of the National Urban League. He also had appointments with Richard J. Helms, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and with Frederick Kappel, chairman of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. and of a panel on federal compensation.

The President-elect spent an hour Thursday with FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

A spokesman said that session dealt with internal security and other matters under FBI jurisdiction.

Nixon leaves tonight for Key Biscayne, Fla., and a working vacation which could extend through next Wednesday.

Decisions

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson made it clear today that he will "make whatever decisions the President of the United States is called on to make between now and Jan. 20" when President-elect Richard M. Nixon takes office.

Johnson said that after Jan. 20, he hopes Nixon "can speak not only for his administration but for all the American people" and Johnson said he would work to help Nixon in that.

Bishops Back Pope's Ban On Birth Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roman Catholic bishops are facing a showdown vote on a birth control compromise that calls use of contraceptives a sin but says married couples who break the ban won't be cut off from the church.

The proposed bishops' statement also questions the worth of the war in Vietnam and urges draft exemptions for youths with a concientious objection to a specific war.

The National Conference of Catholic Bishops, planning a final vote on its pastoral letter, finishes a five-day struggle over stands on artificial birth control and war.

The American bishops backed Pope Paul VI's ban on birth control, but said married couples who find it impossible to follow will not be excluded from communion and other church sacraments.

A key sentence in one version of the proposed pastoral letter reads:

Sacraments

"Conscientious Catholic couples, when overwhelmed by . . . pressures, will not be discouraged if they have resorted to artificial contraception or otherwise fallen into sin; nor should they fail to take full advantage of the strength that comes from the sacraments . . ."

Another version said that married couples "should never be complacent" if they resorted to artificial birth control but would still be open to the church's sacraments.

The Pope's encyclical continuing the church's long ban against contraceptives stirred world-wide controversy. French bishops voted last week to leave the questions to personal conscience.

The proposed pastoral letter said those dissenting priests who challenge the ban act with impropriety and bring the church into disrepute.

The bishops have refused repeatedly to intervene in response to the appeal of 40 priests punished by Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle of Washington for calling for a choice of conscience on birth control.

Vietnam War

In another controversial section the bishops were asked to take an increasing critical stance on the war in Vietnam and the draft.

It called for selective conscientious objection for youths unable to fight in a specific war.

The proposed statement asked whether the Vietnam war had reached the point of human cost where it was no longer worthwhile.

"How much more of our resources in men and money should we commit to this struggle, assuming an acceptable cause or intention? Has the conflict in Vietnam provoked inhuman dimensions of suffering?" the proposal asked.

The bishops were also asked to back nuclear disarmament and challenge both the arms race and the U.S. decision to build a thin-line antiballistic missile system.

"We seriously question whether the present policy of maintaining nuclear superiority is meaningful for security," the proposed version said.

Demos Revising Seniority System

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group of liberal and moderate House Democrats may try to take some of the rigidity out of the seniority system before the new Congress convenes Jan. 3.

But the 140-member Democratic Study Group has no present plans to attempt a change in the House leadership of 75-year-old Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts.

Many plans would give the Democratic caucus more say in committee assignments, which are now made by the Democratic Committee on Committees on the basis of seniority and almost always approved routinely by the House.

The Democratic Committee on Committees is composed of the 15 Democratic members of the Ways and Means Committee, most of whom got on the powerful group through the seniority process. The committee members are chosen by the party caucus.

Holds Majority

The DSG plans to meet to work out a program in advance of the Democratic Caucus, which goes into session just before the new Congress opens Jan. 3. The DSG holds a clear majority of the caucus, which is composed of the 243 House Democrats.

"The idea," a DSG member said, "is to get at least a start in the area of deciding advancement more on the basis of performance and ability instead of political longevity.

"In all probability, the senior member would qualify for advancement in most cases. When he doesn't, there should be a way for the majority of his party colleagues to bypass him."

Some of the proposals suggested so far include:

Caucus Selection

—Allow the speaker to nominate committee chairmen, subject to approval by the party caucus.

—Require the caucus to select the chairmen, with the choice limited to the three senior committee members.

—Create a new Committee on Committees composed of one member from each state having at least one Democrat in the House. The Republicans now follow this procedure. Each member would have as many votes as there are Democratic members from his state.

—Retain the present setup, with each Democrat on the Ways and Means Committee casting as many votes as there are Democrats from his state, when it comes to making committee assignments. This would give larger states a stronger voice than at present.

Today's Chuckle

Even if money grew on trees, a few smart birds would still get most of it.

Thieu To Compromise End To Paris Boycott

All-Volunteer-Army

WASHINGTON (AP) — A moderate Republican senator plans early in the new Congress to revive efforts to replace the draft with an all-volunteer Army—a move that would implement a Nixon campaign proposal.

Oregon's Mark O. Hatfield said Wednesday he hopes beforehand to iron out with President-elect Nixon their major difference on the proposal—the matter of timing.

Hatfield said in an interview his bill will call for a prompt start on the changeover. Nixon proposed to wait until the end of the Vietnam war.

Other congressional sources, however, predict the proposal will run into the same stiff opposition it has encountered in the past in the powerful armed services committees of both houses of Congress.

"Compulsory conscription is repugnant, short of a true national emergency, to a country that purports to have democratic institutions," Hatfield said.

Hatfield plays down the controversies over methods of selection, deferments, age order of induction and conscientious objections.

Such discussions, he said, camouflage "the most basic inequity of the current draft system—the fact that a smaller and smaller minority of our young men is carrying the burden of national defense."

The bill he plans to submit would provide for a transition period in going from the draft to an all-volunteer system.

It calls for higher military salaries, expansion of in-service education and training, greater opportunities for enlisted men to become officers, reduction in the length of time required before promotion, better social, cultural and recreational facilities for personnel, and higher bonuses for re-enlistment.

Proposals for the volunteer approach were rejected last year when the committees considered legislation to extend the draft, subsequently extended by Congress to June 30, 1971.

Warren Still Plans To Retire; Times

NEW YORK (AP) — Chief Justice Earl Warren's decision to retire remains firm and his letter stating his intention to leave the Supreme Court will remain on the table for action by Richard M. Nixon when he becomes president, the New York Times reported today.

In a story from its Washington bureau the newspaper said Warren continues to decline comment, but added "his position is thus understood by his friends and colleagues and can be authoritatively stated."

Harriman, 77, In Difficult Task

PARIS (AP) — W. Averell Harriman turned 77 today in the middle of the most difficult assignments of his career.

A few close associates planned a low-keyed observance, but for the most part it was a normal work day for the chief U.S. negotiator at the Vietnam peace talks who these days usually spends 10 or 11 hours a day on the job six days a week and drops by the office on Sunday.

Had he chosen, Harriman could have spent a life of leisure amply financed by the big fortune from his father's railroad empire. Instead he turned from a big-time business career to government service with the advent of Franklin D. Roosevelt's New Deal in 1933—and wound up with an insider's role in some of history's great dramas.

Roosevelt sent Harriman to deal with Stalin and Churchill during World War II. President Truman made him ambassador to London, Marshall Plan head in Paris, foreign aid administrator in Washington.

At Geneva

One of President Kennedy's assignments injected Harriman deep into the Southeast Asian problem. In 1961-2 he represented the United States at the Geneva conference which agreed on independence and neutrality for Laos.

Harriman could hardly find a more ticklish problem than he now faces from his spacious office at the U.S. Embassy alongside the Place de la Concorde.

After half a year of painstaking negotiation, he helped work out an arrangement with the North Vietnamese to broaden the talks into hard bargaining on how to end the war—but ran into refusal by America's ally, South Vietnam, to come to the proposed expanded conference.

"All negotiations require determination, patience and above all attempts to understand the other fellow's point of view," Harriman said amid this state of affairs.

Certain To Leave

Harriman has faced his Hanoi opposite, Xuan Thuy, through nearly six months of weekly formal sessions and informal tea breaks plus untold secret sessions.

He has applied to this an inquiring mind and a precise memory—always a valuable asset in negotiations—which leaves some of his younger assistants in awe.

As to the future, Harriman said: "I've been too busy to make any plans except that my plans are to live in Washington with my wife."

While President-elect Richard M. Nixon has not yet announced his administration's team for the Paris talks, Harriman is considered certain to leave with the departure of the Johnson administration on Jan. 20.

West Alliance Warns Moscow

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP) — Leaders of the Western alliance joined today in castigating the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia. Some demanded a stern warning to Moscow that the allies would act against any new military thrusts in Europe.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart and Foreign Minister Willy Brandt of West Germany were strong in their condemnation of the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in August.

They told ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization the Soviet move had upset the East-West balance of power

Stewart, the first to speak at the meeting, demanded a clear signal to the Russians against further military action in Europe.

Neither Rusk nor Brandt, however, appeared to back such strong action.

Rusk, making his last appearance in NATO councils before the Republican administration takes over in January, issued an invitation in the name of President Johnson and President-elect Richard M. Nixon to the NATO partners to hold the alliance's 20th birthday meeting in Washington next spring.

No Coalition Government Is Major Issue

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu was reported edging toward attending the Paris peace talks today provided Washington assures him that no coalition government with the Communists will be thrust upon him.

As part of the price for abandoning his boycott of the talks Thieu is also reported to be seeking other unspecified promises from President Johnson.

While the United States is favorably disposed to meet Thieu's wishes, diplomatic sources cautioned that there are other complications which could slow any final settlement.

Reliable officials in Saigon feel the break—if it comes — may take as much as two more weeks and will be coupled with changes within the South Vietnamese Cabinet.

It was reported by authoritative sources—and officially denied—that Premier Tran Van Huong had submitted his resignation to Thieu.

On the military front, the U.S. Command accused North Vietnam of violating a mutual agreement to keep the demilitarized zone free of military activity and sent American bombers streaking over the zone to attack bunkers and ammunition stores. A spokesman said 34 North Vietnamese soldiers were killed and at least a dozen bunkers were destroyed in the southern half of the DMZ.

Differed On Talks

Huong's resignation was submitted as a result of differences arising partly from the stalemated peace talks, the sources said. It was part of an over-all Cabinet crisis which could result in Huong's return to office as head of a stronger government or his departure from Thieu's regime.

Information Minister Ton That Thien, asked about the report of Huong's resignation, said the premier had been informed, "laughed and termed it not accurate." However, Thien would not elaborate and declined to comment further when asked if the report was true.

Other sources in the government said a Cabinet shakeup had been under consideration for several days and some kind of official action was imminent.

Just what shift in the South Vietnamese boycott of the Paris talks was likely was not known, and government sources would make no official comment. But other sources close to the government said if a stronger Cabinet emerged and the Thieu regime thus felt more secure, the president might not feel it so

British Pound Takes A Drop

LONDON (AP) — The British pound plunged to its lowest level in 10 months today and the Bank of England rushed into the market to stop the fall.

The pound opened weak at $2.3850, well below Thursday night's closing $2.3862. It fell to $2.3830, the lowest since January, when it reached $2.3825.

Then it rose suddenly to $2.3835, indicating the Bank of England was buying pounds to shore up the price.

Financial sources said the main reasons for the drop were Britain's bad trade figures for October and persistent rumors that the French franc is to be devalued and the German mark revalued.

Auto Production Up 23.5 Per Cent

DETROIT (AP) — Auto production this week is running 23.5 per cent ahead of the same week last year and is over 200,000 for the sixth straight week.

The trade publication Automotive News reported Thursday that U. S. automakers planned to turn out 211,237 cars this week, up 23.6 per cent from the 170,879 produced in the same week a year ago but down 2.7 per cent from the 217,328 assemblies of last week.

Extend Deadline In Art Contest

Artists of the Escanaba area have until Monday, Nov. 25, to submit their drawings and paintings in the city calendar-report contest, Howard Smale, administrative assistant, announced today.

"We have extended the date from Nov. 15 to the 25th after receiving promises from several persons that they are preparing drawings," Smale reported.

"The city is now definitely committed to the project and because of the pledges of support from the artists we have gone forward with the plans for a publication similar to the past two years. I'm sure this issue of the report will be the best of all if the promised drawings are received."

The city report-calendar provides an opportunity for local artists to see their work reproduced and distributed to more than 5,000 homes, plus a mailing to officials in many other cities across the country.

Drawings and paintings in black and white will be welcomed from any artist in the area, said Smale. They should be mailed or brought to him at the Escanaba City Hall.

Choice of subject matter is pretty much left to the artist, although Escanaba area scenes representing the industrial, agricultural, educational and recreational activities are suggested.

The renderings should be in black and white, using wash, ink, crayon, chalk, conte crayon or other media.

Early Discharges For Christmas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. armed forces will discharge some servicemen early so they can be home for Christmas, the Pentagon announced today.

Liberal leave policies also will be in effect during the Christmas season, as they have in past years.

Servicemen who normally would be discharged from active duty between mid-December and early January will get out one or two weeks ahead of time to enable them to get home in time for the holiday, the Pentagon said.

Under the liberalized leave policies, the aim is to permit most servicemen in the United States and abroad to enjoy leave during either Christmas or New Year's.

This will not apply in Southeast Asia where, the Pentagon said, "operational requirements preclude changing normal leave policy during the holiday season."

PFC Hurkmans, Vietnam Casualty, Honored By Army

Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm S. Hurkmans Sr. of Rhinelander, Wis., Rte. 4, recently received the Bronze Star medal and other awards posthumously presented to their son, PFC Wilhelm S. Hurkmans Jr., who was killed in Vietnam July 22.

The Hurkmans are former residents of Escanaba, moving to Rhinelander about 10 years ago. The young man who was honored by the Army for his devotion and sacrifice was born in Escanaba.

He was killed while returning from a patrol with a scout dog when he was mistaken for the enemy and was fatally shot by friendly forces, the Pentagon reported.

He received the Bronze Star medal, the Purple Heart, Good Conduct Medal, Vietnam and National Defense service medal, and was recognized for his proficiency as a sharpshooter and marksman.

Besides his parents, he is survived by one sister, Debbie, a brother, Michael, his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Iverson of Escanaba, and his paternal grandmother, Dilia Hurkmans of Arnold.

The cucumber, now grown extensively in many countries, was originated in northern India.

May Add Counties To Library Group

Meeting in the Escanaba Public Library Thursday evening the directors of the Mid-Peninsula Library Federation approved the annual budget, acquisition of a framed picture collection, processing of books for member libraries and the possibility of L'Anse and Baraga County joining the federation, which would bring the total to eight counties.

The addition of the framed picture collection will enable most of the member libraries to offer picture rentals to their patrons for the first time. In Escanaba, it will greatly enlarge the selection available to library patrons. The Federation is segregating the picture rental fees so that the collection can be maintained and new pictures added.

Moving into the processing of books, one of the long-time goals of the Federation, will enable the member libraries to stretch their book budgets a little, but more important to libraries is freeing of library personnel from much of the "back-room" technical work so that more time can be devoted to service to patrons. Consolidating purchasing of the member libraries and the Federation will result in savings that make commercial processing of the books possible.

New books will come to the libraries jacketed, with card pockets in place and the cards completed. The cards then can be filed and the books placed on the shelves ready for borrowers.

The new budget approved by the Federation Board totals $59,693. One of the major items included in the budget is a $1,000 drawing account which will allow each member library to order approved adult non-fiction. The purpose is to assist in upgrading the informational materials in the libraries' permanent collections.

The L'Anse and Baraga County boards, contemplating extension of library service in the county, had requested Federation affiliation. Approval by the board makes such action possible.

Federation Librarian R. W. Secord reported on the realignment of library services in West Iron, Delta, and Schoolcraft Counties and the developing of library stations in Alger county.

Four Burned In Camper Explosion

HILLMAN (AP)—A gas stove exploded in a home-made camper trailer Thursday, seriously burning Mr. and Mrs. Wade Davis Sr. of Allen Park and their two sons.

Montmorency County sheriff's men said Davis tried to light a butane stove in the camper and it exploded. The family was on a hunting trip.

Injured were Davis, 44; his wife, Hilda, 42, and their sons, Wade Jr., 6, and Paul, 14. The four at first were taken to Alpena General Hospital but later were transferred to hospitals in Ann Arbor because of the seriousness of their burns.

The oath of office as president was administered to Calvin Coolidge by his father.

License Plates On Sale Today

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's 1969 license plates go on sale today—and they'll cost more.

Plate fees this year will be based on 55 cents per hundred pounds of vehicle, compared with last year's 35 cents per hundred pounds.

The weight tax was increased by legislation during the extra session of 1967 as part of a "good roads" package of bills.

"Actually, the increase from 35 cents to the new formula of 55 cents...is a roll-back to weight tax fees in existence in 1933," said Secretary of State James Hare.

"They were 55 cents before that time but were pushed back to 35 cents during the depression," he said. "And they have remained at the low rate until this year," he said.

The 1969 plates sport white numerals on a red background, in honor of Saginaw Valley College, founded in 1963.

Hare said they would be offered on a first-come, first-served basis.

He urged passenger car owners to take along the prepared license plate applications mailed to them when they go to get plates.

"These applications make it much easier for the public to buy plates and are especially important this year because they have the new license plate fees listed on them," said Hare.

Owners also will need: certificate of title or previous year's registration; proof of liability insurance; cash to pay the plate fee; and an extra $1 if the vehicle is covered by liability insurance.

If the vehicle is not covered, the owner must pay $35 to the motor vehicle accident claims fund and register as an uninsured driver, Hare said.

Wheelchair Victim

DETROIT (AP) — Ronald Coleman, 26, told police he was robbed of $229 while returning home from a store in a wheelchair by a man who put an arm around his throat and said, "Give me your money or I'll kill you. I have a gun."

Gun Registration Procedure Set

Detailed procedures for registering machine guns, sawed-off shotguns, sawed-off rifles, silencers, deactivated war trophies and other destructive devices were announced today zy A. M. Stoeplen, of Detroit, District Director of Internal Revenue for Michigan.

The Gun Control Act of 1968 requires that weapons and devices of this type must be registered with the Internal Revenue Service by Dec. 1.

Stoepler said that copies of Registration Form 4467 are available at Alcohol & Tobacco Tax and other IRS offices.

Forms are prepared in three copies, two of which should be mailed to the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 20024. The third copy may be kept by the registrant.

Firearms or destructive devices should not be brought to an IRS office to be registered, Stoepler said.

Under the new law all firearms and destructive devices requiring registration must be identified by a serial number. If a firearm or device does not have a serial number, the owner should phone, visit, or write the nearest IRS Alcohol and Tobacco Tax office and a number will be assigned.

After obtaining the number, the owner is responsible for affixing it to the firearm or device before completing the registration form. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the nearest Alcohol and Tobacco Tax or other IRS office. In Escanaba, the IRS office is in the Post Office.

Shatterproof Windows Tested

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Board of Education is testing three types of shatterproof windows in hopes of finding one that will stand up under the severe tests by vandals. More than 100,000 school windows are broken by vandals yearly, costing the board nearly $1 million.

College To Name New Facilities For Local People

A policy designed to give Bay de Noc Community College's new campus a local flavor was approved Thursday night by the college's Board of Trustees.

The trustees reserved the right to make final decisions on names for new buildings and streets on the campus, but indicated a desire to select names relating to Delta County.

"It is hoped that the buildings will be named for those deceased persons who have contributed significantly to life in Delta County," the Board said. "These contributions may be of historical, economic, cultural or educational nature.

"It is proposed that streets on the campus be named for the townships or other political subdivisions of Delta County."

The first building on the campus, a $420,000 vocational education and laboratory building, is expected to be completed for use during the 1969-70 academic year.

Bids will be sought by the Board of Trustees in the near future.

Receive Equipment

Dr. Richard Rinehart, college president, reported that architects and faculty members have been reviewing priorities and individual building designs and are now evaluating ideas and needs for new campus construction.

The Board of Trustees announced that the college has been given equipment and chemicals by the Dow Chemical Co., Midland, valued at $12,500.

Through efforts of science faculty members, arrangements were made with the company and selections of desired equipment and materials completed from a list made available by the company.

The Board also discussed a proposal for developing volunteer workers and local awareness of the problems of the poor. Federal funds, available under the Higher Education Act, would be used if a project is approved.

Seek Federal Aid

A proposal asking $97,698 in federal assistance for 1969-70 to continue a work study program and provide financial assistance to students was approved. It was also announced by Rinehart that Bay de Noc will cooperate with Suomi Junior College in a consortiam project to provide assistance for joint faculty conferences and travel.

In other action, the Board approved conversion of a boiler in the present building to gas, gave preliminary consideration to student organization policies and discussed transportation problems for college field trips and official college travel.

Ed Gein Ordered Back To Hospital

WAUTOMA, Wis.—Ed Gein, former Plainfield, Wis., handyman, was back in a Wisconsin mental hospital at Waupun today after Circuit Judge Robert Gollmar of Baraboo, Wis. found him not guilty by reason of insanity in the 1957 slaying and mutilation of a Plainfield woman.

Gein will remain at the hospital for the rest of his life, unless at some future date the hospital psychiatric staff determines he has regained his sanity and would not be a menace to society.

If a court agrees, he could be released and, if released, he would not face further court action despite a conviction on a first degree murder charge also handed down Thursday by Judge Gollmar.

Under a split trial procedure, Judge Gollmar found Gein guilty of murder in the first degree, then ruled him not guilty by reason of insanity.

Gein, who has spent 10 of the past 11 years at the Waupun hospital, was accused of the gunshot slaying of Mrs. Bernice Worden on Nov. 16, 1957. Mrs. Worden's body was found hanging from rafters in a woodshed on Gein's farm. The body had been decapitated and "dressed out" like a deer.

During the trial, Gein testified that the shooting was accidental while he was examining a .22 caliber rifle in her hardware store. The judge noted that Gein was familiar with firearms and that it was unreasonable to believe that he would be reckless with the gun. He also said it was "significant" that Gein did not call for medical help after the shooting, but instead "took the body to his home and mutilated it."

The judge heard the case without a jury. Gein was judged competent to stand trial earlier this year after 10 years at the mental hospital.

Two Men Injured In Area Mishaps

Two men were hospitalized as a result of traffic accidents Thursday, State Police reported.

Thomas Covert, 23, Cleveland, O., was injured when his car ran off County Dd. 521 near the Ford River School. Troopers said the car hit a mailbox and utility pole before rolling out into a field.

Mathew Craporotta, 45, Detroit, hit a pair of trees with his car off an unnamed county road in Harris Township, Menominee County, officers said.

Both men were reported in good condition at St. Francis Hospital today. Each was ticketed for violation of the basic speed law, police said.

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers possesses civil as well as military functions.

Crisis In The School

One million school children in New York have been locked out of their classrooms for most of this school year because of a teachers' strike.

In at least two other localities, both in Ohio, thousands of other children have found themselves in the same predicament — again because of strikes, but in these cases not strikes by teachers but by citizens who refuse to tax themselves enough to keep their schools in operation.

School levies were voted down twice this year at Perry, Ohio, forcing the closing of the schools in October. Fortunately for Perry kids, a third levy was passed in the recent elections and the schools have reopened.

* * *

But for 28,000 school children in Youngstown, Nov. 5 was a dark day. A school levy was defeated for the third time, despite warnings that the schools could not go on without it and despite the loss in state funds that it would entail. It was the fifth levy defeat in the city in two years.

Youngstown children now face an extended Thanksgiving - Christmas - New Year's hiatus in their education from Nov. 27 to Jan. 23.

The issues that have aroused voter wrath in both communities are more complicated than a simple revolt against taxes. Yet that factor is certainly present and is perhaps more influential than the voters themselves realize or would admit.

* * *

School taxes are about the only ones that the ordinary citizen has under his direct and immediate control. Washington is remote, and state capitals (where legislatures have raised taxes by $3.8 billion in the past two years) are not much closer.

But no state, and no nation, can long tolerate continual interruptions in the education of those who will be the citizens of tomorrow, whether brought about by striking teachers or by striking taxpayers.

If local communities cannot or will not educate their children, eventually a higher government, on the state or a federal level, will move in and do it for them.

Them Thar Laws

A 22-year-old British anarchist has made a fantastic discovery.

"Majority rule is an illusion," pronounces Stuart Christie. "Freedom is the absence of government. Laws do not give liberty, they draw lines around it."

Why no one has ever realized this before is a mystery. It is so obvious when you think about it.

Everything we do in our daily lives, from the important to the trivial, every situation that brings us into contact with other people, is ringed around with countless laws, ordinances and prohibitions that limit our personal freedom.

* * *

Not only is one forced to contribute of his own wealth to pa ythe salaries of people one does not even know, one cannot drive across town without being forced to stop dozens of times to allow others to have the right of way.

The horror of it all is that if we don't pay our taxes and don't obey traffic regulations, what little freedom we have can be taken from us.

Yet, somehow, we are not impressed with the insight of this young thinker. There are, of course, unnecessary laws, silly laws and downright evil laws. But that is merely to say that men are imperfect. And because they are imperfect, no laws at all would be infinitely worse.

* * *

Just laws are an impediment only to those whose social conscience, whose sense of responsibility toward their fellows, is absent or undeveloped. Some men would behave decently if no laws existed at all, but, unfortunately, their number has always been too few to make anarchy practical.

Thus we would revise Christie's dictum to say: "Absolute freedom is an illusion. Chaos is the absence of government. Laws do not limit liberty but draw lines around chaos, thereby enhancing the liberty of all."

This, too, is an obvious truth. It is passing strange that after 6,000 years of recorded human history, it still needs to be repeated.

More Education Is Primary Need In World Today

By LUTHER M. BARRETT
Superintendent
Escanaba Area Public Schools

In discussing American Education Week one must give particular attention to that middle word "education". That is the key word. But what is education?

Education is the training of the mental and moral powers of an individual, either by a system of study or by the experiences of life. This is accomplished either through the formal process offered by our schools or by mere experience —the so-called "school of hard knocks". All people in our society enjoy the benefits of both.

Our laws require the formal approach through the age of 16. Many go far beyond that, of course. Whenever our formal educations end, the informal or experiential educations take over.

The education of concern in the observance of American Education Week is the formal variety, the type obtained in our schools. It is what a person takes away with him when he finishes his schooling.

Is education an art or a science? Is education knowledge or wisdom? It is probably both in both instances.

An important aspect of any educational program is the imparting of knowledge, a body of facts. The act of transmitting these facts—and there are now so many ways of accomplishing this—is a science. But the ability to use and apply this knowledge in our lives and in our associations with others might be considered wisdom. In this sense, education might be considered an art.

Whichever it is, education has become of first importance in this technological age in which we live. We need more and more education to survive economically in our society, to make a living. We need more and more education in order to get along with our neighbor, to communicate with him, since we are so much closer to him than ever before.

A poet once said, "Education is making men." This is a broad purpose. When we stop to consider the complexities of our society, the varying interests and abilities of the thousands of children who enter the schools every day, the variety of materials and methods which must be used daily in meeting the needs of those children, the process of education is big, and it is important.

It has been estimated that more than one-third of our population is involved in some way with education—either as student (child or adult), as a professional (teacher, administrator, or consultant), or in supplying materials (production or distribution).

Education is big. Education is important. Education requires the most sincere attention from the people of this nation.

Vague Constitution Causes 'Legislating'

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Often in his campaign, Richard Nixon told audiences that if elected president he would appoint "strict constructionists" to fill any vacancies on the U. S. Supreme Court.

He made this point especially when talking to southerners. In fact, a reporter's secret tape recording of a talk he made to a private session with several southern delegations to the convention at Miami Beach disclosed strong emphasis on the matter.

Implicit in the argument that underlies this issue is the notion that the language of the U. S. Constitution is for the most part exceedingly precise and can, therefore, be "strictly constructed" by any justice who feels an overriding responsibility to do that.

But the fact is that in certain crucial clauses, both in its main body and in its two-score amendments, the Constitution's language is quite general and imprecise.

For example, in Section VIII of Article I, the document reads:

"The Congress shall have power to . . . provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States."

* * *

At another place, Congress is authorized to "make rules for the government."

A recently much-talked-of provision states that on application of two-thirds of the states the Congress shall call a convention for proposing amendments to the Constitution.

There is nothing precise about any of these clauses, and examples of this sort could be multiplied several times.

What is the "general welfare?"

Obviously, only interpretation by judges and lawmakers attempting to live reasonably under the Constitution could give life and meaning to those words. There is no such thing as "strict construction."

The same can be said for the power to "make rules for the government," which plainly can be read as sweepingly as seems necessary at any stage in history to make government work properly and efficiently.

As for the clause dealing with the calling of a constitutional convention at the request of two-thirds of the states, the document says absolutely nothing about how such a convention should be organized, who should serve as delegates, how they should be chosen, whether the meeting should be limited in consideration of specified amendments or allowed to review the whole Constitution.

In truth, the "strict constructionist" argument is and always has been seriously misleading. To apply it as a doctrine would mean using only certain portions of the Constitution and rendering totally inoperative those many others which are couched in very general language.

* * *

Closely corelated with this whole is the frequently heard charge that the Supreme Court in recent years has been "legislating" rather than merely following the explicit words of the Constitution.

Anyone who reads the nation's constitutional history will quickly discover that nearly every time the high court broke new ground by interpreting vague constitutional phrasing, it was accused of "legislating." The complaint is as old as the country itself.

There is truly no way to use the Constitution without "legislating," if that term is to be applied to the court's interpretations of general language. By the same token, federal administrators by the hundreds of thousands over the years could be charged with "legislating," since they, too, must interpret —for administrative purposes— the frequently very vague language in statutes passed by Congress.

To suggest that a Supreme Court could be put together which could merely apply the words of the Constitution and never interpret them is to suggest that men could be found who would not act as judges at all but as useless figures doing nothing of consequence.

Interpretation can be liberal or it can be conservative. But there will always be interpretation, which critics may or may not call "legislating." When it stops, the Constitution will be dead as a useful document for America.

The late Walter Malowan of New York was famous for his no-trump bidding. He bid more no-trumps than anyone and although he was set many times, he also made a lot of games that other players missed.

South's three no-trump call could almost be taken right out of Malowan's book. South could be sure of eight tricks with a diamond lead and decided to bid three no-trump rather than four spades.

There was an additional reason for his apparent madness. He was vulnerable and his opponents weren't. He could visualize a possible sacrifice against three no-trump.

When West doubled South decided to stand by his guns. He felt that he would also be doubled at four spades and that he would not make that contract any easier than he could make three no-trump.

When West opened the queen of clubs South wished he had run to four spades, or had merely bid two spades and stopped. Then he looked at dummy and things appeared far better. The king-10-small of clubs represented a stopper in this suit, the king-queen of hearts took care of any danger there. He could see the sun shining brightly and hear the birds twittering in the treetops.

He played dummy's king. East took his ace and returned the suit to West's jack. A third club went to dummy's 10 and South ran off his eight spade tricks and conceded the last two.

A diamond opening lead would have beaten him but there would have been no way for him to bring home 10 tricks at spades.

Won't Allow Man To Teach Wife Driving

Dear Ann Landers: A couple of months ago my child cut his hand and I had to wait 30 minutes while my husband closed his shop and came home to drive us to the hospital. (There is no bus service out here and a taxi takes forever.)

After that terrible incident my husband promised to teach me to drive. But he made me so nervous (called me dumb and a fraidy cat) that I gave up trying to learn from him. When I announced I was enrolling in driving school he screamed, "No man is going to teach MY wife anything. It would be a reflection on me."

We have two cars and a truck so it isn't that he is afraid I will deprive him of the car. There are so many things I could do if I could drive. I feel like a rummy staying home while a car sits in the garage. I need advice. — STUCK

Dear Stuck: Don't ask His Worship if you can take driving lessons. Tell him. Explain that the next emergency might be a matter of life and death and you aren't taking any chances.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: My problem is my brother, although he did not cause it on purpose. Rusty happens to be a very good athlete. He is tops at just about everything you can think of. Rusty has won track medals, tennis cups, and played on the baseball and football teams when he was in high school. This fall he enters college on a football scholarship.

I just started high school. Everyone knows me as Rusty's brother. They think just because my brother was a great athlete I should be one, too. Well, I'm not. I haven't got his build and I don't have the interest in it.

I do a lot better with my head than with my muscles. So what's wrong with that? I have always been in the upper five per cent of my class and I want to get a science scholarship, not a football scholarship.

Please print my letter. Maybe people will have a better understanding of my problem and leave me alone — especially the coaches.— BRAIN INSTEAD OF BRAWN

Dear Brain: Here's your letter and I hope people will have a better understanding of your problem and leave you alone Especially the coaches.

* * *

Dear Ann Landers: No doubt your readers are getting sick and tired of reading letters about "my husband's mother." Well, this one is going to be different. It's his father I can't stand.

Grandpa's wife died eight months ago and he moved into this apartment building. He has a key to our front door and uses it whenever he feels like it. Last week at 2:00 a.m. he was prowling around in the kitchen looking for a can of beer. At six o'clock this morning he was in our bathroom looking for a razor blade.

Gramps has dinner here regularly, which I don't mind. But I DO mind when he picks up tramps in the bars and tries to pass them off as daughters of old friends. Even our 12-year-old is on to him.

I've told my husband I am fed up but he says he can't ask his dad to stay out of our home. And it's true, as my husband points out, it would be a great inconvenience for us to move as we are close to everything. What do you suggest? — SCREAMING MEEMIES

Dear Meen: You're close to everything, all right — including a nervous breakdown. My advice is to move. It could be the beginning of a new set of rules — like no key for Gramps and no uninvited "daughters" for dinner.

Move Forward On Housing For Senior Citizens

The Escanaba City Council in special meeting Thursday moved forward in the program to provide low-cost housing for the elderly of the area by the construction of a high-rise apartment building that will be financed by a federal loan.

The Housing Commission, which developed the housing facility to be erected in the east two-thirds of the south 500 block of Ludington St., met on Wednesday in connection with the implementing of the city's contract agreements with the U.S. Housing Assistance Administration.

A federal loan in the amount of $2,713,748 to finance the construction, to be repaid in rentals over a period of 40 years, has been approved.

The 176-unit apartment building would be constructed by developers Blumenfeld and Rokita of Milwaukee. It will be about 18 stories high.

Time Schedule

Escanaba city will not be required to share in the cost, but will receive in lieu of taxes an estimated $10,560 annually. The present total taxes paid on the affected properties in the housing project area are about $3,061, the Housing Commission reports.

The Council adopted a resolution authorizing Mayor Cecil Chase and City Clerk Don Guindon to execute the annual contributions contract with the federal government; named a general depository, and approved an agreement on the issuance of advance notes.

The time schedule on the project is tentatively like this:

Begin the demolition and removal of existing structures in the east two-thirds of the 500 block in February.

Start construction of the apartment tower next spring, with completion anticipated within 15 months thereafter.

Extend Option

Persons of low income and 62 years of age or over at the time the housing facility is opened will be eligible. Also eligible will be disabled veterans.

The senior citizens may not have earnings of more than $3,200 a year nor liquid assets in excess of $7,500. There are about 400 persons who have applied for housing.

The Escanaba City Council in other business at its Thursday afternoon special session extended for 90 days the option of Clairmont Transfer Co. to purchase about 13 acres of land from the city as the site for a new terminal.

The land is located on the new Danforth road adjacent to the plant of Northern Motor Rebuilders. Clairmont Transfer will by the extension of the option have the time necessary to continue its site engineering studies.

Headon Crash Kills Man, Boy

MUNISING — A 44-year-old Muskegon man and an eight-year-old Dearborn Heights boy are dead and five other persons are in serious condition in Munising Memorial Hospital as a result of a two-car collision at 10:10 a. m. Thursday on M-28 six miles west of Seney in Schoolcraft County.

Victims were Murtain M. Warren, driver of one of the cars involved in the crash, and Blaze Fencil, who was a passenger in a car driven by his father, Jerome M. Fencil, 52.

Injured were Fencil, his wife, Gloria, 43; a 14-year-old son, Mark and John Schuitz, 19, all of Dearborn Heights, and Albert Elwynlink, 48, of Muskegon, who was a passenger in the Warren vehicle.

Five-year-old Jerry Fencil, who was asleep in the back seat of his father's car, escaped injury.

Munising State Police said the west-bound Fencil car was passing another vehicle when it collided with the east-bound Warren car.

Warren was pronounced dead at the scene. The Fencil boy died en route to the hospital.

No Coalition Government Is Major Issue

necessary that his delegation outrank that of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front at the Paris talks.

Not Accepted

Huong submitted his resignation Thursday, but by Friday afternoon Thieu reportedly had not decided whether to accept it. The president was reported considering a major Cabinet reshuffle, including the foreign and information ministries.

The premier, who wields little political power under South Vietnam's constitution, was reported dissatisfied with the slow progress of his campaign against corruption and interference by the military in Cabinet affairs.

The real power is held by South Vietnam's president. But Huong, who has been in office less than six months, is widely respected and is the source of much of what popular support the government has.

A factor in these developments was the long-standing rivalry between President Thieu and Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky, who was reported to be demanding more of his supporters in a new Cabinet as his price for supporting Thieu in his dispute with the United States over the Paris talks.

Bunker, Thieu Meeting

U. S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker met with Thieu today for the first time in nearly a week. An informed American source said the meeting, which lasted more than an hour, was another American effort to talk Thieu out of his boycott of the peace talks.

Thieu has refused to take part in the Paris talks unless the Viet Cong has a place subordinate to the North Vietnamese on the Communist side of the table while his own delegation heads the anti-Communist side. The North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong say that idea is absurd; that the National Liberation Front is the only true representative of the South Vietnamese people while Thieu's government is a bunch of American puppets.

South Vietnam's chief observer in Paris, Pham Dang Lam, told a newsman Thursday his government is afraid President Johnson might yield to Hanoi on key points to achieve a peacemaking breakthrough before Johnson's term expires in January.

"If the only preoccupation of the U.S. government is to find something acceptable for the other side within the next two months, then we are very worried indeed," Lam said.

Briefly Told

State Police issued traffic summonses Thursday to Alcott Erickson, 703 Dakota Ave., Gladstone, speeding, and Daniel Johnson, Rte. 1, Rapid River, defective exhaust.

Two car-deer accidents were reported to State Police Thursday. Glen Cutcher, 17, Rte. 1, Escanaba, struck a deer with his car on U.S. 2 and 41 in Wells Township and Lawrence Wilcox, 32, Rock, reported a deer ran into the side of his car on M-35 south of Rock. Neither driver was injured, officers said.

Escanaba police have issued traffic court notices to Gary A. Carlson, Escanaba Rte. 1, defective equipment; Thomas D. Mercier, 155 N. Maple Ave., Manistique; and to Donald W. Michelson, 24, of Escanaba Box 58, for speeding 70 miles an hour in a 30 mile zone in North Escanaba. Michelson was halted after a chase by police patrol at 2:10 a.m. today.

Minnewasca Chapter 96 Order of the Eastern Star will serve a smorgasbord at the Gladstone Masonic Temple Saturday beginning at 5 p. m. All hunters in the area are especially invited to attend.

Gladstone Police report a hit-and-run accident which occurred about 1 p. m. Friday. A car owned by Jacob A. Zayac, parked in front of his home at 514 Michigan Ave., was damaged on the left rear and side. Investigation of the accident is continuing.

Gladstone Senior Citizens Club has canceled the party scheduled for Saturday night. The party will be rescheduled in December.

The Delta County Democratic Women's Club will meet at 8 p. m. Monday in the Extension office of the Delta County building to discuss plans for the Christmas sale. Those attending should use the west entrance to the building.

The Golden Age Club will meet after 2 p. m. Sunday at the Catherine Bonifas Civic Center for cards, a potluck lunch and dancing.

THIS TROPHY BUCK won't be available to deer hunters in Delta County this year because of a violator. Conservation officers said the nine-point buck was shot early Thursday morning in Cornell Township by a man who fled the kill when the owner of property on which the deer was shot appeared. Officers said the deer was about 5½ years old and had a span of 18 inches between antler tips. (Daily Press Photo)

Rain, Mild Temperatures Greet U.P. Deer Hunters

Rain and drizzle coupled with mild temperatures greeted deer hunters in the Upper Peninsula this morning as Michigan's 1968 firearm deer season began.

Despite the weather conditions, however, large numbers of hunters ventured into the woods and by mid-morning were rewarded with sunshine.

In the Delta County area, concentrations of hunters were reported in the Haymeadow, Stonington, Federal Forest Highway 13 and Escanaba River areas.

Students Join Hunt

The total included some 400 students from Escanaba Area High School—about 27 percent of the total student body—who turned up with excuses from parents Wednesday and Thursday.

The Michigan Conservation Dept., which officially became the Dept. of Natural Resources today, reported temperatures ranging between 30 and 40 degrees throughout the Peninsula. The pre-season illegal kill of deer was reported as normal, but violations were up from last year, officers said.

An additional supply of hunting licenses, 100 non-resident and 500 resident, was rushed to license agencies in the western part of the U. P. last night after license dealers reported they were sold out of first supplies.

Vehicle count at the Mackinac Straits Bridge indicated more hunters in the field in the Upper Peninsula this year than a year ago. Latest figures report 22,665 hunters vehicles northbound compared with 22,012 for a similar period last year.

No Injuries Reported

Earlier this week, officials had indicated fewer hunters might come to the Upper Peninsula this year for opening day because of the simultaneous start of the hunt throughout the state.

Some 600,000 hunters were expected to be in the field in Michigan.

Late this morning, there were no reports of any hunter lost, injured or killed in the Upper Peninsula.

The season began at 6 a. m. Central Standard Time with legal shooting allowed until 5 p. m. in the Central Time zone areas.

Advisory Body To Make Report

Report and recommendations of the Citizens Advisory Committee on water and sewerage improvements will be heard by the Escanaba City Council when it meets at the City Hall at 8 p.m. Thurslay, Nov. 21.

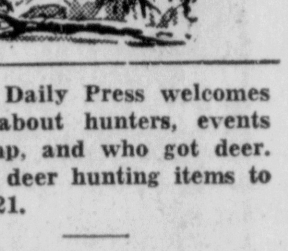
The Committee, appointed by the Council, has been studying plans for the development of improved sewer and water utilities to meet present and future needs.

Other business to come before the Council will include:

First reading of an ordinance to establish a city parking violations bureau; vacating of the cable easement for electric service in the Parkway Estates subdivision; and to act on a recommendation of the Planning Commission to vacate a part of 6th Ave. S. from 19th St. to the alley.

Consideration of the endorsement of House Bill No. 4028 which provides for a member of the State Highway Commission from the Upper Peninsula.

With The Deer Hunters



The Daily Press welcomes news about hunters, events in camp, and who got deer. Phone deer hunting items to 786-1021.

Due to the large number of men working in the area of the Escanaba Paper Co., the Delta County Sheriff's Dept. and the Michigan Conservation Dept. have prohibited hunting in that area.

Eric Sattem, 2123 6th Ave. S. shot a 3 point, 130 pound buck at about 7 a.m. this morning. He was hunting with his father, Eldred, out of the Sattem Camp in the Hermansville area.

Margaret Gravel called in to report killing a 210 pound, 9 point buck on top of the Whitefish Hill early this morning.

Edward Brzozowy, Tre Mich., reported filling license with a 12 pointer ing 200 pounds. He shot the buck near the Haymeadow just after 8:30 this morning.

An eight-point buck was shot about 8 a. m. today by Jim Henderson, Wells. He was hunting at the Hupy Camp north of Spalding.

Fred Pirlot Sr., hunting with three sons in the area north of Spalding, bagged an eight pointer, weighing 180 pounds at about 7:15 this morning. His 16-year-old son, Russell, shot his first buck a short time later. Russell's buck was a 14 pointer that tipped the scales at 225 pounds. Sons Fred Jr., and Terry are still looking, the father reports.

PAWTUCKET, R.I. (AP) — Police Sgt. John Cordoni says a new plea for residents to watch their neighbors' homes to help prevent burglaries produced 30 calls Thursday, but no burglars.

Cordoni heads the community alert plan, in which neighborhoods are divided into five-house units for surveillance. Persons were asked to call police headquarters to report unusual activity.

Inauguration Ceremonies To Be 'Subdued'

WASHINGTON (AP) Richard M. Nixon's inauguration ceremonies will include the traditional inaugural balls and a shortened parade keyed to the theme: "Bring Us Together."

Nixon advisers had been quoted as saying a "subdued" Inauguration Day was under consideration in view of the Vietnam War.

But J. Willard Marriott, chairman of the 1969 Inaugural Committee, said today in a prepared statement that there will be five—possibly six—inaugural balls and a two-hour parade with bands and floats.

Nixon believes the inauguration "is a national occasion in which all the people should have the opportunity to see and participate" Marriott said.

President Johnson trimmed the inauguration parade to three hours in 1965 and banished military hardware. He held five inaugural balls.

From 1945, when President Roosevelt was sworn in during austere ceremonies at the White House, until Johnson shortened the parade, the bands, floats and horses had taken five hours or more to pass the reviewing stand.

President Kennedy's inauguration parade lasted over an hour after sundown.

Nixon coined the "Bring Us Together" motto in his first press conference after his election. He said he borrowed it from a sign carried by a young girl during a campaign appearance in Deshler, Ohio.

A departure from past years is the decision not to use the cavernous D.C. Armory for an inaugural ball. All five balls scheduled so far will be held in hotels.

Marriott said, "We will ask each state to be represented by a marching band of their choice and state float somewhat similar to the approach used by the Rose Bowl operation."

Predict Increase In Seaway Traffic

WASHINGTON (AP) — A dramatic increase in St. Lawrence Seaway traffic in 1969 is predicted by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., chairman of the Great Lakes Conference of Senators, and Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., vice chairman.

Next year will mark the Seaway's 10th anniversary. A joint congressional executive branch meeting with Great Lakes are held this week to plan the seaway's anniversary celebration.

Represented at the meeting were lakes port and shipping interests as well as representatives from the Department of Defense, State, Transportation, Commerce and Interior.

"This past year," Proxmire and Hart said in a statement, "has shown the remarkable resiliency of the St. Lawrence Seaway. Despite two major strikes involving lock workers and grain elevator operators the seaway is expected to reach 50 million tons of traffic handled a long sought-after goal."

Food Service Industry Accepts New Foods First

EAST LANSING—When it comes to accepting new food products, the hotel, restaurant and institutional trade takes a back seat to no one.

The food service industry is always on the lookout for reasonably priced food products which offer both quality and convenience, reports Dr. Smith Greig, a Michigan State University agricultural economist.

The food service industry's quick acceptance of new items can be illustrated by the fact that, "over half the onions used by the institutional trade in Detroit are processed products, compared to only four to five per cent at the household level," says Dr. Greig.

"Also, over one-half the french fried potatoes and mashed potatoes at the institutional level came from processed products before use of these products at the retail level reached 10 per cent."

Dr. Greig believes processors will continue to produce more and more convenience items and, "synthetic foods or food analogs will take an increasing share of the market."

He predicts that new methods of processing will continue to expand, and that consumers will see an increasingly greater number of new products on the supermarket shelves. But, the hotel and restaurant trade will still use many new products which the homemaker will never see on the grocer's shelf.

Legion Auxiliary Sends Packages To Servicemen

BARK RIVER — The Legion Hall in Bark River was a beehive of activity Monday night after a short business meeting of the Rheaume-Knauf American Legion Auxiliary. At this time about 20 women busily filled 30 three pound coffee cans with candy, bars, cookies, popcorn and other goodies to send to area servicemen.

It was all done on an assembly line and as quick as a wink, 30 cans were filled to the top, a letter from the Auxiliary was then inserted and the cans went on to the last table for wraping, sealing and addressing.

"The response to our appeal for names and addresses of area servicemen was very satisfying," said Mrs. Hector Larson, Auxiliary president, "and donations for filling the cans were very adequate."

"If any serviceman was not included it was because relatives neglected to hand in his name," said Mrs. Larson.

The 30 packages were mailed Tuesday morning. 18 to boys overseas and 12 to those in the United States.

Separate Siamese Twins; Successful

NEW YORK (AP) — Siamese twin girls who were born 17 months ago end to end and with a common leg were separated 10 days ago at Brooklyn's Brookdale Hospital Center and are coming along satisfactorily, says their surgeon.

Born at the Center on June 15, 1967, were Sherrie and Sharisse Jones, daughters of a Brooklyn postal worker and his wife. The parents have three other children, all born without abnormalities.

Dr. Ascher L. Mestel, pediatric surgeon who directed the six-man operating team, said Thursday the twins should lead "a relatively normal life" after orthopedic work and hospital therapy.

During the 11-hour operation, Mestel said, it had been necessary to separate "about every major system except for the heart and lung."

Man Preferred To Face Jailer

PONTIAC (AP)— Jack Rose, 39, a wealthy Detroit area builder, was sentenced to one year in jail Wednesday by Oakland County Judge James S. Thorburn for refusing to reveal his assets in a divorce case and for calling the judge a "corrupt monster."

Rose was held in the Oakland County Jail without bond after he told the judge, "I'd rather look through the bars at my jailer than look at you."

He was held in contempt for refusing to pay $20,000 in attorney's fees for his wife, Doris, who is divorcing him, for refusing to pay $625 a week in alimony, and refusing to answer questions about his assets and income.

He gave his address as the offices of Edward Rose Sales Co., his father's building firm. Rose is reportedly a multimillionaire.

Rose, who is a Wayne State University law student, has acted as his own attorney in the divorce case, which has dragged through the circuit court and the court of appeals since 1963. His wife brought a suit for separate maintenance in 1963 and later filed for divorce. The pending case is the third one she has filed.

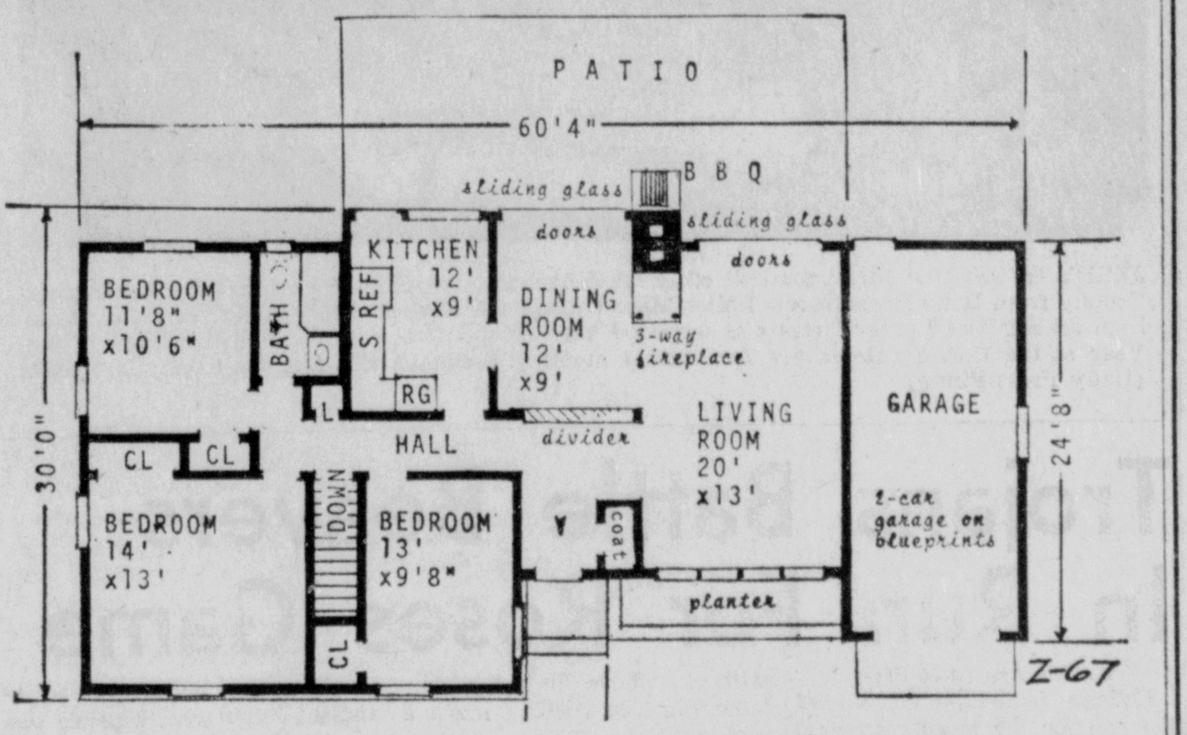
ATTRACTIVE STONE at lower portion of small ranch blends well with wood shakes and vertical siding. Warm note is added by the planter under the living room window.

Entrance to garage may be placed at side or rear if size of lot permits extra maneuvering space.

Individuality; Small Ranch

By ANDY LANG



FLOOR PLANS: Compactness is the keynote here, enabling the architect to provide three bedrooms in a single floor yet keep habitable area down to an economical 1250 square feet. Living room, dining room and kitchen all have access to patio.

There is individuality in this ranch house even though it has a habitable area of only 1250 square feet.

Created to handle the living requirements of a medium-sized family that needs three bedrooms yet cannot afford a large house, it nevertheless avoids the mundane quality that often is typical of such homes. Architect Herbert C. Struppmann has accomplished this by a dramatic arrangement of the living room and dining room, utilizing an attractive three-way fireplace as a divider and tying in both rooms with a rear patio.

A stone planter gives colorful interest to the front entrance. Just inside the door is a vestibule with a clothes closet, with an immediate view of the living room-dining room area. A low decorative divider on the dining room side does not interfere with the open plan but enhances it. To the right is the living room, that runs from the front of the house to the rear, with a huge window at the front and a wall of sliding glass doors at the rear. One long unbroken wall helps to orientate furniture groupings; it faces an open passage to the dining room, with the only divider a modern, three-way stone fireplace which may be enjoyed at any point in either room.

The entire effect is one of a free-flowing area, including all the elements which go to make up a successful entertaining unit for year-around use. With the sliding glass doors leading to the patio from either the living room or dining room, an even greater impression of space is created. At the back of the fireplace is a patio barbecue for outdoor dining. It's an unusually luxurious arrangement in a house of this size.

Next to the dining room and also at the rear of the house — but with direct access from the front door — is the kitchen. It has a compact work area, a large window and an outside door, the latter a convenience if food cooked in the kitchen is to be eaten on the patio.

Ranged along the hallway are the stairs to the basement, a linen closet, a bathroom with a tub and vanity sink, and the three bedrooms. Each bedroom has cross ventilation and a closet.

While the floor plan shows a one-car garage, the architect has provided plans for this size or a garage for two cars. Each plan includes a side window and a rear door.

The exterior is simple but effective, with the living room window and entranceway slightly recessed between the bedroom wing and the garage. Vertical wood siding and shakes are combined with some handsome stone work.

Z-67 STATISTICS

Design Z-67 has a living room, dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms, a bathroom and vestibule, with a total habitable area of 1250 square feet. Over-all dimensions are 60' 4" by 30', which includes a one-car garage. The architect's plans provide also for a two-car garage, so that a choice can be made. A hall stairway leads to a basement.

Bond For Honesty

LANSING (AP)— A $50 savings bond has been returned to Capt. David P. Wood, of the Plattsburg, N.Y., Air Force Base, thanks to the honesty of a State Highway Department worker.

Wood was driving on U.S. 27 near Clare last August when a suitcase dropped off the top of his car and the contents scattered over more than one-half mile of highway.

Two months later, Richard Blaize of Flint, a maintenance worker, found the savings bond. Robert Studer, Lansing office manager for the traffic and safety division, did the sleuthing to locate Wood and return the bond.

Pistons Hold Off Suns For Victory

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — The Detroit Pistons survived several fourth - quarter rallies by the Phoenix Suns Thursday night to pull out a 111-109 National Basketball Association victory.

The Pistons led until the fourth quarter when the Suns rallied to tie eight times. But the Pistons held on with a five - point effort in the last two minutes to build a 111-106 lead.

In the last 25 seconds, the Suns' scrambling defense produced three turnovers, but Bob Warlick's shot at the buzzer missed.

High scorers for Detroit were Dave Bing and Hap Hairston with 23 points. Gail Goodrich led Phoenix with 25.

Los Angeles beat the New York Mets 113-104, Oakland topped Dallas 112-106 and Denver trounced Houston 105-89 in the American Basketball Association.

Robertson, who missed all or part of 30 games, last season, scored 29 points, handed out six assists, and returned to action late in the game to break a Knick rally by scoring five straight points.

It was another typical Big O performance as was that of another Cincinnati veteran, Jerry Lucas, who scored 21 points and snared 20 rebounds.

"I've been very surprised about New York," said Dierking. "I think they have a good club. It just involves getting together."

The Knicks, picked at a serious contender in the East but off to a 5-11 start, were so far apart—and off the target—in the second quarter against the Royals that it cost them the game.

New York had numerous turnovers, hit on just six of 26 field goal attempts and went almost 7½ minutes without making a basket as they scored just 17 points in the second quarter and fell behind 54-41 at halftime.

It was too much of a deficit for the Knicks to overcome, although Cazzie Russell went on a 26-point scoring splurge in the second half. Russell made just two points on foul shots in the first half. Walt Bellamy was the second-high Knick scorer, with 19.

Trojans Battle Beavers In Run For Roses Game

By The Associated Press

College football's version of the run for the roses comes up Saturday when top-rated Southern California and O. J. Simpson entertain 13th-ranked Oregon State and Bill "Earthquake" Enyart with the winners going to the Rose Bowl.

"Oregon State is a better team than California," says Coach John McKay, whose unbeaten Trojans trimmed the ranked Golden Bears 35-17 last weekend. "They're a veteran team and probably the biggest team in the country."

The nationally televised Simpson-Enyart duel should be something to see. Simpson is second nationally in rushing with 1,211 yards and 17 touchdowns while Enyart, a line-busting fullback, has 1,038 yards and 13 TDs.

"Enyart doesn't have great speed but he has quick feet," notes McKay. "You've got to tackle him head-on. You can't get him from the side and expect to keep him from getting four or five yards. Maybe he's not a great runner but he's a real good one behind an offensive line that averages something like 245 pounds, and that includes the ends.

"And their quarterback, Steve Preece, is by far the best we've seen in recent years at running the option. Just when you think you've got him nailed he flips the ball out. Sure, you can defense him with three men to the outside but then he'll hand off to Enyart for 200 yards up the middle."

The Beavers are the only team to beat Simpson—3-0 last year—in his two seasons at Southern Cal.

The nation's ranking teams will be involved in a raft of games that will go a long way toward deciding the conference races and the bowl picture.

While Oregon State-Southern Cal will settle the Pacific Eight, there are three key contests in the Big Ten and two each in the Big Eight, Southeastern and Southwest Conferences.

Unbeaten and second-ranked Ohio State visits Iowa, which has developed an explosive offense with Larry Lawrence at quarterback and Ed Podolak at halfback, where he set a one-game Big Ten rushing mark a week ago.

The Buckeyes are tied for the Big Ten lead with fourth-ranked Michigan with 19th-ranked Indiana a game back. Michigan will be at home against winless Wisconsin while Indiana hosts in-and-out Minnesota. The big one is Michigan-Ohio State next weekend.

Missouri, ranked sixth, leads the Big Eight by a game but must tackle rugged Oklahoma on the road. The Sooners, led by Steve Owens, the country's No. 5 runner, toppled previously unbeaten Kansas into second place a week ago. Seventh-ranked Kansas also is on the road at Kansas State.

The key Southeastern games are fifth-ranked Georgia at 12th-ranked Auburn and Mississippi at No. 11 Tennessee. Auburn, on the strength of three straight upsets, leads with a 4-0 record, while Georgia is 4-0-1, Mississippi 3-1 and Tennessee 1-1-1.

The perennial Southwest scramble finds eighth-ranked Texas, 10th-ranked Arkansas, Southern Methodist and Texas Tech at the top with 4-1 records. Texas is at Texas Christian in a night game, Arkansas entertains SMU at Little Rock and Texas Tech visits Baylor.

Penn State, the nation's only unbeaten major independent, takes its third-place ranking and second - rated rushing defense to Maryland. Notre Dame, ranked ninth, faces Georgia Tech at home without Terry Hanratty, lost for the season with a knee injury. Sophomore Joe Theismann takes over.

Television fans are in for a doubleheader. Besides Oregon State-Southern Cal, ABC-TV will air a night game featuring 16th-ranked Alabama and Miami, Fla., in the Orange Bowl.

Spartan Greats To Meet Lions

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions vs. the Michigan State Spartans?

Not quite, but almost.

Two All-American teammates from Michigan State's 1966 football team will be playing with Minnesota when the Vikings meet the Lions in Detroit on Sunday for the second time this season. The Lions lost the first time, 24-10, at Minneapolis.

The duo: Gene Washington and Clinton Jones.

Washington, a fast-running, 6-foot-3 former hurdles star, leads the Vikings with 30 pass receptions.

"He's our first deep threat," says a Vikings spokesman. The Minnesota official said the team has had Paul Flatley, Red Phillips and Tommy Hall "who catch well, but nobody to worry the opponent deep.

"Gene can beat you deep," he said.

Washington took over Flatley's job this season after having been used sparingly as a rookie.

Jones became a regular running back with the Vikings when Dave Osborn suffered a knee injury that required surgery and kept him out of action for 13 weeks.

Coach Bud Grant says Jones is "a natural runner. I don't think he's reached his full potential yet." Jones has run for 450 yards this season, with an average of 4.2 yards gained per carry.

Although Osborn is ready for service again, Jones may start against the Lions.

Sayers Sidelined In Traffic Court

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Bears' swift Gale Sayers also has been sidelined in traffic court.

A traffic court magistrate Thursday continued a speeding case against Sayers until Dec. 18.

Sayers required surgery after suffering a serious knee injury Sunday against the San Francisco 49ers.

Hull's Hat Trick Topples Penguins

By The Associated Press

Red Sullivan has had his fill of the Chicago Black Hawks and Bobby Hull, thank you.

The Pittsburgh skipper watched the Hawks fire six goals into the Penguins' net for the second straight night Thursday and suffered through a 6-4 loss.

On Wednesday, the Hawks beat the Penguins 6-5 on Hull's goal with 17 seconds left to play. Thursday it was Hull again with the 22nd three goal-hat trick of his career sinking the Penguins.

In other NHL games, Toronto tripped Montreal 5-3, Philadelphia downed Boston 4-2 and Detroit turned back Los Angeles 5-2.

Hull scored all three of his goals in the second period but it took Jim Pappin's goal late in the period to give the Hawks a 4-3 lead over the battling Penguins. The trio gave Hull 13 for the season.

Then Bobby Schmautz scored a pair of third period goals 3½ minutes apart to wrap it up for Chicago. Hull, the NHL's leading scorer, also had an assist, running his point total for the season to 30.

The Maple Leafs bunched three goals in three minutes—two of them by Norm Ullman and Paul Henderson just 10 seconds apart—and tagged Montreal with its third loss in 14 games this season.

Yvan Cournoyer hit twice for the Canadiens before Ullman, Henderson and Murray Oliver put Toronto in control midway through the second period. Wayne Carleton and Mike Walton were Toronto's other scorers and Jacques Lemaire hit for the Canadiens.

Gary Dornhoefer, a former Bruin, scored two goals for Philadelphia and led the Flyers past Boston. Dornhoefer also engaged in two fights with Bobby Orr and the talented Boston defenseman suffered a bruised right fist that will be X-rayed today.

Bernie Parent, another ex-Bruin, made 31 saves for Philadelphia, allowing only goals by Derek Sanderson and Phil Esposito. Brit Selby and Leon Rochefort were Philadelphia's other scorers.

Detroit broke Los Angeles' four-game winning streak behind ex-Kings' goalie Terry Sawchuk. The Red Wings scored three goals in the opening period and built a 5-0 lead before Gordon Labossiere and Ed Joyal spoiled Sawchuk's shutout bid with third-period goals.

Danny Lawson, Dean Prentice, Gary Bergman, Frank Mahovlich and Garry Unger produced the Detroit goals.

Braves' Cage Squad To Face Negaunee

GLADSTONE — Coach Bill Wood has seven seniors and six juniors listed on his Gladstone High School varsity basketball roster that will travel to Negaunee tonight for the Braves' season opener against the Miners in a Great Lakes Conference tussle.

Steve Nelson, a 6-foot 5-inch forward, heads the list of returnees and he will be joined on the squad by seniors Mark Weber, David Livermore, John Watson, Bob Carlson, Eric Triechel and Steve Maniaci and juniors Cliff Young, Don Harris, Pat Cole, Lynn Apelgren, John Skellenger and Bart Stupak.

Nelson was named to the All-U. P. Class B second team last season when he led the Braves in scoring with 350 points and tied for the leadership in rebounds with 210.

Two valuable ball players, Stupak and Dennis Anderson, are lost to the squad for this season. Stupak graduated and is now playing for the Bay de Noc Community College team, while Anderson, who had another year of competition remaining, transferred to Wahpeton, N. D. Anderson tallied 141 points and cleared the boards for 145 rebounds as a junior last season and his departure, along with the transfer of six-foot Gary DeVore downstate, will greatly hurt the Braves overall strength.

The only other loss suffered by the Braves was the graduation of guard Pete Jarvis, who saw a lot of action last season and chipped in with 57 points and 57 rebounds.

Coach Wood is hoping that Watson, a 6-foot 4-inch center, can return to the form he showed as a sophomore. Watson suffered a knee injury in football last year and never did get back in condition during the remainder of last season. With Watson back in shape, Nelson will get much needed help with rebounds.

Wood has slated Young and Weber to start at the guard posts, Nelson and Maniaci to man the forward slots and Watson to be the center in the opener tonight. Following the Negaunee game the Braves play Stephenson and Munising on the road before returning home against Holy Name on December 10.

The Negaunee and Munising games are conference contests and could well play a big part in deciding the conference championship.

The Gladstone schedule:

Red Wings Top LA Kings, 5-2

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings scored three first-period goals and went on to defeat Los Angeles 5-2 and snap the Kings' four-game National Hockey League winning streak Thursday night.

Red Wing goalie Terry Sawchuk, traded to Detroit by the Kings before the season started, returned to plague his former teammates.

He blanked Los Angeles for more than two periods before allowing a power play goal by Gordon Labossiere at 6:39 of the final period. Ed Joyal scored at 9:50 for the Kings' other goal.

Danny Lawson scored first against King goalie Gerry Desjardins after five minutes of the first period. Dean Prentice and Gary Bergman also tallied in the period for a 3-0 Red Wing lead.

The score went to 5-0 on goals by Frank Mahovlich and Garry Unger before the Kings broke Sawchuk's bid for a shutout.

Four Lettermen Back At Powers

POWERS — Four lettermen, including one starter, return to bolster the cage hopes of Powers-Spalding High School during the coming basketball season. The Tigers open their schedule on November 22 at Channing.

Kim Riedy, a 6 foot 2 inch, 175 pound center is the only starter back from last year's squad which finished the season with a 15-5 mark. Other lettermen on the squad are Jack Fleetwood, Jim Charles and Dick Smith.

The roster also includes seniors Mike LaBonte, John Nelson and Ron DeLoughary; junior Bob Pirlot and sophomores Bob Mileski and Don Sharkey.

Graduation took its toll from the Tigers' roster this season. Gone are Scott Riedy, last year's leading scorer; Roger Stebbins and Tom Smith, last year's leading rebounders; captain Tom Betters plus reserves Marty Christiansen and David Pietsch.

Mike Forsberg returns as head coach this season and he will be assisted by Al Erickson. Commenting on the coming season, Forsberg said, "A young team that may surprise many people. We should get stronger later in the season. The conference race should be a toss-up this year with Channing having a slight edge for the title." The Tigers play in the new Skyline Conference.

The Powers-Spalding schedule:

Nov. 22—at Channing
Nov. 26—Felch
Dec. 3—at Hermansville

Spartan Seniors Make Last Home Appearance

EAST LANSING (AP) — The seniors are the only ones on the Michigan State football squad with memories of past glories connected with Purdue.

There will be 17 seniors making their last home appearance before a crowd of more than 70,000 in Saturday's meeting with the Boilermakers.

Two of them, if they even are able to take a bow, will be on the bench. Fluuback Regis Cavenger is sidelined by a broken leg. Tackle Nick Jordan is out of play after a knee operation.

The remainder still can recall the 1966 season, when the Spartans won 9, lost none and had to settle for a 10-10 deadlock with Notre Dame.

Michigan State whipped Purdue 41-20 that year.

Team captain Al Brenner, a sophomore then, was still a starter at end and pulled down five passes for 91 yards. Brenner now plays both offense and defense as an end and probably is the top MSU pro prospect.

Defensive tackle Charlie Bailey was a sophomore starter against Purdue. Frank Waters, now on defense, went into the game as a second string halfback behind Clint Jones.

The Spartans were so sure of victory they allowed then sophomores Bill Fexaco and Charlie Wedemeyer to try their hand at directing the team.

Feraco now is No. 2 signalcaller behind sophomore Bill Triplett, scheduled as the starter. Wedemeyer is a flankerback.

Others who saw brief action two years ago included Dick Berlinski at halfback, Bob Super at roverback, Jack Zindel at defensive guard and Ed McLoud at center.

The juniors who played in the 21-7 loss to Purdue last year don't have those glories to recall. MSU's 3-7 won and lost record of 1967 was the worst Duffy Daugherty ever posted as head coach.

MSU did come back to score and dominate the second half after trailing 21-0 at the intermission.

It was Purdue's Leroy Keyes who dominated that game. Keyes gained 193 yards rushing in 24 carries, a game record by an opponent against Michigan State.

Keyes also threw a touchdown pass and received one for a touchdown, from Mike Phipps who will be quarterbacking for the Boilermakers again Saturday.

Keyes has been playing above injuries this year, going for 791 yards and 11 touchdowns despite a lame back and a sore knee. Keyes and split end Bob Dillingham both have 26 pass receptions.

Fullback Perry Williams has 435 yards rushing.

Phipps has completed 125 passes for 748 yards.

All these statistics plus the fact that the Boilermakers are boiling over a 27-13 upset by Minnesota means the Michigan State defense will be having fits Saturday.

It will take a lot of senior Spartan spirit to pull this one out for Michigan State.

All-State Honors

GLADSTONE—Carl Backstrom, coach of the Gladstone High School cross-country team, reported today that Gary Ellison and John Louis, both seniors at Gladstone, have been named to the All-State team for cross-country.

The two runners received this honor on the basis of their performances in the U. P. Cross-Country meet held at Marquette on October 19. Ellison, who was named to the All-State team last year, finished third in the meet and Louis placed 13th.

The top 15 finishers in the U. P. meet receive All-State honors.

Only Four Weeks Left For Pro Gridders

NEW YORK (AP) — Only four weeks to go in the regular pro football season after Sunday's schedule and it's getting that time of year when the weatherman can throw as much weight as a Bubba Smith.

Things ran true to form last week, with the exception of Dallas' upset by New York, but we also went down trying to stage upsets with the 49ers and Eagles.

The toughest picks appear to be Minnesota-Detroit and Los Angeles-San Francisco in the National Football League and New York-Oakland in the American Football League. Having learned a lesson the hard way we're going to stick with most of the favorites.

Last week's 9-3-1 made it 69-32-3 for the year (42-20-2 in the NFL and 27-11-1 in the AFL). Let's try again. All games are to be played Sunday.

NFL

Chicago 20, Atlanta 10-Despite loss of Gale Sayers, Bears seem to have too much for Falcons, who have been giving up almost 31 points a game. Weather can be a factor at Wrigley Field in mid-November. League's worst passing attack against Falcons' porous air defense. Maybe Mac Parcival will do all the scoring.

Cleveland 30, Pittsburgh 17—Steelers always trouble for Browns but they're in no mood to be stopped now with a grasp on division lead and four-game victor streak. Pittsburgh attack has picked up under Dick Shiner but Bill Nelsen will find the holes in Steeler pass defense. Browns won Oct. 5 game, 31-24.

Dallas 31, Washington 10-Only a rejuvenation of Sonny Jurgensen, who may be able to play without his protective corset, can make this close despite history of wild scoring in the series. They split last five years. If Tom Landry didn't have whip out this week he never will. They play again in Dallas Thanksgiving Day. A big day for the Cowboy runners.

Minnesota 21, Detroit 14-Would like Vikings better if game not in Detroit where Lions play their best. Detroit would have fine chance to win division title if they score upset here because rest of schedule favors them. Sick Lion offense and sturdy Viking defense and up to tight one for Bill Brown and Co. on strong running game. Vikings took first game 24-10.

Los Angeles 17, San Fraancisco 14-Scared of this one. Rams have shown no offense lately and 49ers have been spotty. Los Angeles defense should do it but San Francisco should be loose and ready for all-out effort before home folks. Could be an upset, although Rams won in Los Angeles 24-10.

Green Bay 21, New Orleans 17-It's shocking to find Packers 3-5-1 at this stage. Time is running out for their big push but they can't be counted out yet. Saints' defense will pressure Bart Starr, who had been getting dumped regularly, and it could be real tight. Milwaukee site favors Green Bay, especially if the snow is flying. First meeting of two clubs ever.

New York 27, Philadelphia 17-Giants sky high after beating Dallas. Eagles, booed at home and losers of nine straight, in angry mood. Everbody runs on Eagles so why not Giants with Ernie Koy rejoining Tucker Frederickson and Bobby Duhon. Norm Snead's passes to Fred Hill and running of Tom Woodeshick are Eagle threats. Giants won first game 34-25, blocking three conversion attempts.

Baltimore 31, St. Louis 17-Colts appear to be steaming toward Super Bowl with fine blend of offense and solid defense. Without Jerry Hill they probably will depend more on Earl Morrall's passes against Cards' air defense, 15th in league. Jim Hart staged another dazzling second half rally against Steelers but may be running for his life from Cold rush.

AFL

Kansas City 27, Boston 14—Although Patriots are in losing streak, Chiefs can't afford to stumble with only half game lead in tight Western race. Pat Holmes emerging as real rookie star and Jan Stenerud still is booting those field goals. Pats without Nick Buoniconti again.

Miami 21, Cincinnati 20—Bob Griese's passing and Jim Klick's running make up for weak defense that has allowed 29 touchdowns. Paul Robinson's running makes Bengals dangerous. Home field favors Dolphins. Miami won earlier 24-22 when Cincinnati failed on two-point conversion try.

Houston 17, Denver 14—floyd Little could make things hot for Oilers, who may suffer letdown after dropping 3½ games behind Jets and practically out of race. Peter Beathard and Don Trull will find Astrodome more to their liking than rainy Shea Stadium.

Oakland 24, New York 23-Could be preview of the AFL title game. Last time they met Ben Davidson fractured Joe Namath's cheekbone last December in Oakland. Raiders led league with 30 touchdowns and Jets are tops in defense. A Houston 17, Denver 14—Floyd needs the game more than New York.

San Diego 31, Buffalo 14—Unless Chargers spent too much time enjoying the wintry scene at Niagara Falls, they should handle Bills with little trouble. Any more injuries and Buffalo will be starting Jack Horrigan, their p.r. man, at quarterback.

Sports In Brief

Everyone laughed when Michigan State's Duffy Daugherty told the pre-Notre Dame game press gathering that his Spartans might even try an onside kick if they were to kick-off against the Irish the next day. State did kick off to start the game and stunned a capacity house and national television audience by executing the predicted maneuver perfectly. It led to a quick score and helped toward the eventual 21-17 victory.

Mickey Stanley batted in more runs in 1968 than he did in all his previous seasons with the Tigers combined.

Badger Game Important To Leading Wolverines

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan Coach Bump Elliott won't say a word about the Nov. 23 showdown with Ohio State at Columbus.

As far as he's concerned, or at least as far as he is willing to devulge, Saturday's encounter with winless Wisconsin is as important as any game the Wolverines have played all season.

"Our whole attention is strictly on Wisconsin," he said dryly as he slowly walked off the practice field after putting the team through a rough workout Thursday.

"Wisconsin is strong and tough," he said, as if to try to convince a skeptical listener who was perhaps mindful that the Badgers haven't won a game since Nov. 19, 1966.

"They've come close to realizing success but haven't," he added. "They have a good running game as well as a passing game and they have a good, hard-rock defense."

The way the Wolverines hit in practice indicated they may very well be thinking strictly of the Badgers rather than Ohio State. Both Michigan and OSU are 5-0 in the Big Ten and if the Wolverines beat Wisconsin and Ohio State beats Iowa Saturday the Nov. 23rd game will decide the conference champion and Rose Bowl representative.

During a drill on plays within the opponents 10-yard line three Wolverines had to receive treatment from the trainer after rough contact. But no one on the squad is suffering from serious physical troubles.

Cornerback Brian Healy is still recovering from an injury but Elliott said he would be dressed for the game. Defensive guards Jerry Miklos and Al Francis, and defensive tackle Jim Wilhite were down with the flu but may be ready for Saturday's game.

Although Wisconsin ranks ninth in the Big Ten in defense Elliott praised Badger linebacker Ken Criter. Criter leads the conference in tackles with 82, 54 of them solo. Wisconsin tackle Jim DeLisle has thrown opponents for losses eight times for tops in the league in that category. He and linebacker teammate Ed Albright have forced six fumbles.

Michigan, meanwhile, has leaders in three Big Ten statistics categories. Quarterback Dennis Brown is tops in passing with 56 completions in 119 tries for 831 yards and nine touchdowns, and he is No. 1 in total offense with 1,072 yards passing and rushing.

Halfback sensation Ron Johnson leads all scorers with 50 points. He was rushing leader until last week when Iowa quarterback-tailback Ed Podolak surpassed him and has 666 yards to Johnson's 579.

Safetyman Tom Curtis has eight pass interceptions to far outdistance anyone else in the category. The junior standout has nabbed 16 passes in his two years on the team.

Elliott was asked who he thought was the most improved player since the beginning of the season. "I really think so many of our guys have done well it's hard to say," he said. "Henry Hill has developed the potential he always had. (Dan) Parks has come well. (Ed) Moore, (Dan) Dierdorf, Bill Harris—I think it's been one of those interesting things where so many have developed."

"I think they're continuing to progress," he added. "But we need to continue to progress."

Choir 'Festival' Rehearsals Begin

The Fourth Annual "Festival of Lessons and Carols" will be held on Dec. 15 at 3 p.m. at the Zion Lutheran Church under the asupices of the Manistique Ministerial Association. Father Kenneth F. Connor Jr., pastor of St. Alban's Church, is Master of the Choir.

Rehearsals for the Youth Choir will get underway at 10:30 this Saturday morning at the Zion Lutheran Church, Fr. Connor said, while the Senior Choir will begin rehearsals on Sunday at 3 p.m. at the same location.

Father Connor said that all interested choir members from past years and any new persons are most welcome to attend the Sunday rehearsal. There are many new carols and anthems to learn, he added, as well as some familiar and favorite carols.

The design of the service is basically that which does not make it a concert but a community involvement and a church involvement in bringing about the best possible spirit of the Christmas season.

Youth Choir rehearsals are scheduled for this Saturday and also Nov. 23 and 30 at 10:30 a.m. Adult Choir will meet this Sunday and also Dec. 1 and 8 at 3:00 p.m.

The "Festival" has been held at other city churches in previous years. In 1965 the Zion Lutheran Church; St. Francis Church, 1966; and the First Baptist Church last year.

A significant item of this year's "Festival" will be the importance of the youth participation, Fr. Connor said. The Children's Choir will be seen and heard — not the case in previous years.

Fish Available To Hardy Angler

Lakes and streams are still free of ice but some areas did experience 8 inches of snow last Sunday night. There still is enough snow for deer tracking if "old sol" doesn't put the torch to it.

Sport fishing is practically at a standstill. There are a few hardy souls out making the best of the hungry fish that invade the shallows at this time of the year.

There is a good possibility of taking lake trout, rainbow and brown trout close to shore in the Salt Point area of Whitefish Bay, Chippewa County.

Rainbow Trout: A few nice fish still being taken at the mouth of the Two Hearted River and an occasional fish from Camp 8 Lake, Luce County and Dutch Fred Lake, Schoolcraft County.

Splake: Some fish still reported taken from Dutch Fred Lake, Schoolcraft County.

Menominees: Good catches of large fish are being taken in the deeper holes of the lower portion of the Two Hearted River.

Walleye: A few fish taken from Munuscong Bay and adjacent St. Mary's River, Chippewa County and Big Manistique Lake, Luce-Mackinac counties and Tahquamenon River, Luce County.

Yellow Perch: Some nice perch caught close to shore in Helmer Bay, Big Manistique Lake. Chances should be good on most of the larger inland lakes of the district, fishing close to shore, near the fringes of the reeds using minnows or worms for bait.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Christine Elaine Olsen to Pvt. Bruce Swagart is being announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Olsen of Cooks. Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Swagart are the prospective bridegroom's parents, Christine is a student at Big Bay de Noc High School in Nahma. No wedding date has been set.

Midseason TV Cuts Announced

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — By order of the Nielsen ratings, seven and one-half television programs will be cut off the networks in midseason. During January and February, seven new candidates will be put in the schedules. It's the annual turn over.

Until a couple of seasons back, a midseason start was something to be dreaded—and with good reason. Almost none had ever survived through the following September. But now, with the two hottest entries of the past two years—"The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour" on CBS and "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-in" on NBC—the most talked about shows on the air, a midseason start is something to be cherished. They both started that way.

ABC, which this season is having more program troubles than the other two networks, is dropping five shows and cutting its weekly output of "Peyton Place" in half. In an effort to bolster its ratings, it is taking on a half-hour show by the producers of "Laugh-in" plus an hour show by the team that first produced the Smothers Brothers show. The network obviously hopes lightning will strike it, too.

Drop 'Ugliest Girl'

ABC's massive realignment of its Thursday night schedule involves canceling a suspense anthology, "Journey to the Unknown" that never caught on, and a comedy series, "Ugliest Girl in Town" that misfired. It is a salvage operation for three of its comedy shows, "The Flying Nun," "Bewitched" and "That Girl." The block of three once permitted ABC to capture the top ratings of Thursday nights, but all three have suffered this season. It is hoped they will be returned to Nielsen health by opening the evening with "The Flying Nun," following with the Marlo Thomas series—which will get it out of the path of CBS's powerful movie feature—and let "Bewitched" alone. Then will come the new revue show, "What's it All About, World?" for an hour, after which ABC will turn the final hour of prime time back to its affiliated stations to program, leaving NBC's Dean Martin and the movie to fight it out for audience favor.

Bad Fridays

Nothing was doing very well for ABC on Friday nights, so the network decided to drop the first three shows of the evening. It will replace "Operation: Entertainment" with a variety hour starring Welsh singer Tom Jones and fill the holes left by departing "Felony Squad" and "The Don Rickles Show" with a couple of inexpensive game shows.

"Peyton Place" has been rapidly running out of steam this season, so it will be cut to one episode a week. The Wednesday night spot will be filled by a half-hour show, "Section 8," which will hopefully be somewhere left of "Laugh-in" and right of "That Was The Week That Was."

"My Friend Tony" is replacing "The Beautiful Phyllis Diller Show" on NBC, and the "The Glen Campbell Show" is taking over from "Daktari" on CBS.

Thief Couldn't Jump Counter

TORONTO, Canada (AP) — Everything was going smoothly for two men trying to rob a bank Thursday until one of them attempted to vault over a four-foot counter and missed.

The men, wearing halloween masks, walked into a branch of the Toronto-Dominion Bank. One of them pulled a revolver and lined up the tellers against a wall.

The second man tried a one-handed vault over the counter instead of walking through a swinging door, but his foot caught on the counter top and he crashed to the floor in front of the employes.

While his companion fled, the tellers pounced on him. One shot was fired, but no one was injured.

Edward Kotaposki, 33, of Montreal, was later charged with attempted robbery.

Management Man

DETROIT (AP) — Semon E. Knudsen, president of Ford Motor Co., will receive the Michigan Management Man of the Year Award Saturday night at a dinner sponsored by Sigma Iota Epsilon, professional management fraternity. Special guests at the dinner will include Henry Ford II, chairman of Ford, and Gov. George Romney.

Gospel Roundup For Hunters Set At Rapid River

The 14th annual Hunters Gospel Roundup will be held on Monday at 8:00 p. m. in the Rapid River American Legion Hall. Rev. Gaylord Wright of the Grace Baptist Church of Gladstone will bring the message.

The program, arranged by Gospel Songfest, Inc., will feature selections by the Salvation Army String Band of Escanaba and the Gospel Songrest String Ensemble.

The public is invited and encouraged to wear the traditional hunters red. Refreshments will be served.

The tanning industry obtains about 97 per cent of its hides from animals that are produced for meat or wool.

In Service

Lt. Col. Clinton A. Butler, a native of Gladstone, learned of his promotion to Lt. Col. when he returned to Griffiths Air Force Base recently from a tour of duty. A group of his associates hung a sign outside his base operations so he could see it when he stepped from the plane. The Lt. Col. had previously been selected for temporary promotion. He is the son of Ben Butler, 221 S. 9th St.
